

Carina Rodney

Writer

Carina is a multi-award-winning writer from the Northeast of England, with a background in theatre and radio writing, now also moving into feature film and TV writing as well. She is a current Royal Literary Fund fellow and BAFTA Crew participant (2019/20). Her original audio drama series, HELL CATS (10 x 60mins) is set for release in November 2020 as a flagship production for Audible's scripted drama division. Recorded with a cast of 52, it's a large-scale, adventurous 'queer pirate epic', and imagines the lives and times of female(ish) pirates Anne Bonny and Mary Read. She has also recently developed a body horror feature screenplay, THE CHANGE, with producer/director Jennifer Handorf (PREVENGE, THE BORDERLANDS, THE FORGOTTEN), which is currently in pre-production and received BFI Early Development Funding, was a FrightFest 'New Blood' finalist in 2019 and was a selected project for Frontiers Film Market & Marche Du Film 2020. Her accolades include a residential attachment and award from the National Theatre, Peggy Ramsay award, and Northern Exposure BBC Development Award. She is currently developing a number of original drama ideas for film and television.
