

KATE COX

Writer / Director

Kate is an exceptionally talented young filmmaker from Yorkshire. She graduated from Nottingham Trent University with a First Class Hons in Fine Art and went on to work as Assistant Art Director in film and TV, before moving to London to hone her photographic eye by assisting editorial and portrait photographers. In 2017, Kate began directing her own scripts. Kate's films are not only aesthetically striking, but they also tackle the complex, current and distinctly human subject matters that are too often underrepresented on screen and they do so in a uniquely honest manner. Being drawn to ideas of gender, the female experience and sexuality, Kate's storytelling is both tender and bold, refusing to shy from the emotionally knotty and sensitive themes at its core.
