

ROB DRUMMOND

Writer

Rob Drummond is an award-winning published playwright, performer and director who has worked with the most prestigious theatres in the UK. He is an associate artist at the Traverse Theatre, and his wide-ranging work includes two CATS award-winning plays for young audiences, Mr Write (National Theatre of Scotland) and Uncanny Valley (Borderline Theatre and Edinburgh International Science Festival), Rob Drummond: Wrestling (The Arches), for which Rob trained as a professional wrestler, the multi award-winning Bullet Catch (The Arches), which enjoyed a long running world tour and saw Rob train as a magician, CATS award-winning Quiz Show (The Traverse) and critically acclaimed thriller Grain In The Blood (The Traverse). Recent hits also include the first ever stage version of beloved Scottish comic strip The Broons (Selladoor) and dating show In Fidelity (HighTide), in which Rob helped audience members find love live on stage.

Rob is now writing new commissions for four of the UK's top theatres, The Traverse, The National Theatre of Scotland, The Royal Court and The National Theatre of Great Britain, as well as working on new pieces for radio, film and TV.
