

SHARMA WALFALL
Writer

After winning the inaugural Channel 4 New Writing North Award in 2015 Sharma was placed with Lime Pictures where she wrote her first televised credit – an episode on HOLLYOAKS which aired in January last year. Since then Sharma has been developing her original series ideas including OUT OF BOUNDS which was awarded a development commission with TriForce Creative Network Writer's Incubator and was subsequently read as part of Sky's popular industry table reads. Sharma's writing is tender, she writes young voices with aplomb and is exceptionally deft at crafting ensemble multi-stranded drama.
