

Vikas Gogana

Writer

Vikas Gogana is an actor and writer born and raised in Leicester, of Indian descent. Previously, he worked as a research and development writer on SURVIVORS' CLUB, a TV series in development with the BFI written by Mal Young and Daran Little. He was recently selected to participate in the National Theatre's 16-21 Writing for Theatre course, and was shortlisted and interviewed for Creative England's Shortflix scheme in 2019. He is working on an original LGBT comedy drama TV series pilot and a feature film, working with director Ben Mallaby, as well as a short film rom-com script about a mixed-ethnicity couple meeting the parents for the first time. Vikas has also blogged for THE CS NETWORK, a platform that celebrates 'all things ethnic' in film and television.
