Biography

Alex Gabassi was born in São Paulo, Brazil. He started his career in theatre working for 4 years with The Complicité theatre company, as stage manager and assistant to Simon McBurney. He also produced and directed the Videobrasil Author's Collection, a series of documentaries that explore the creative processes of contemporary artists in various parts of the world such as Lebanon and South Africa. Among which "Certain Doubts of William Kentridge", about the South-African artist. In 2004, Alex began directing commercial films for clients such as Google, Mastercard, Coca-Cola, Honda, McDonald's and others.
