

Siri Rødnes

Director

Siri Rødnes is a director and writer with particular interests in genre. Her recent short films include the Creative Scotland commissioned GRIMM STREET, a dark fairy tale about a terminally disabled 14 year old girl, and TAKE YOUR PARTNERS, a crowd-funded coming of age about an 8 year old tomboy who evokes her inner cowboy and refuses to adhere to gender norms. Also completed in 2015 was ASKING FOR IT, released online in coordination with the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women. Siri is currently developing her debut feature NINE LIVES, co-written by Tom Basden and adapted from the science fiction short story by Ursula K. Le Guin. Siri has a MA in Directing Fiction from the National Film & Television School and BA from Edinburgh College of Art. She currently works between London and Scotland.
