

Abigail Wilson

Writer

Abigail Wilson is a highly experienced British comedy & drama writer, whose writing sparkles with warmth and humour.

Her credits include original series RUBY SPEAKING on ITVX and Sky One's Christmas special ROALD & BEATRIX: THE TAIL OF THE CURIOUS MOUSE (2020) which received critical acclaim including a BANFF Rockie for Best TV Movie and further nominations at the Broadcasting Press Guild and C21 Awards and has led to a second special commission from Sky and Hartswood Films. Most recently, she was an episodic writer on the newest season of BBC's CALL THE MIDWIFE and was in the writers' room for season two of DEATH VALLEY.

Abigail has also written episodes for some of Britain's most beloved comedies including TROLLIED and STELLA, TEN PERCENT (the UK adaptation of beloved French comedy series CALL MY AGENT) and THE LARKINS for ITV, as well as co-writing all three series of JAM & JERUSALEM. Abigail's dramatic work includes period docudramas JACK THE RIPPER: WRITTEN IN BLOOD and THE ROYAL MOB for Nutopia/Sky History, and an adaptation of Faye Weldon's thriller THE CLONING OF JOANNA MAY for Tornante in the US.
