

Amy Casselden

BSL Interpreter

A Sign Language Interpreter based in the East Midlands with a deep passion for access and inclusion.

This passion runs deep—shaped by growing up alongside my Deaf brother and now raising a Deaf son of my own.

Over the years I've had the privilege of working in a wide range of domains including theatre, mental health, education, podcasts, and even within the prison system. Each setting has taught me something new and reinforced the importance equal access.

We know that the TV industry is embracing the beauty of deaf talent and crying out for BSL interpreters, so I'm delighted to join the Access Team to round off their deaf expertise and consultancy.
