Released by Shudder in April 2021

"a palpably ambitious piece, with a visual acuity which punches well above its weight... never looks anything less than a class act." [Screen]

*"Fantastically realised with an authentic 70s aesthetic... Faith delivers an engrossing modern horror that gets deep under the skin of classism and sexism in Britain, whilst injecting a hearty dose of the scare factor... Akin to a classic horror like The Exorcist" [UK Film Review ****]*

"an emotionally powerful tale full of claustrophobic dread and nyctophobic-induced scares... [Faith] demonstrates a thrilling ability to mount dread and suspense... an emotional powerhouse with a few memorable scares."

*[Bloody Disgusting ****]*
