

Rebecca Frecknall

Director

Rebecca Frecknall is a multi-Olivier Award-winning director, who has directed in the UK and internationally. She is Associate Director at the Almeida Theatre.

Rebecca is the director of the award-winning productions of 'Cabaret' at the KitKat Club (Winner of seven Olivier Awards, including Best Director and Best Musical Revival 2022, Winner of the Critics' Circle Award for Best Director 2022 and What's on Stage Award for Best West End show 2024), and the critically acclaimed productions of 'A Streetcar Named Desire' and 'Summer and Smoke', both of which won Olivier Awards for Best Revival, and both of which were nominated for the Olivier Award for Best Director. Both shows opened at the Almeida before transferring to the West End. Rebecca's production of 'Sanctuary City' at the New York Theatre Workshop won the 2022 Drama Desk Award for Outstanding Director of a Play.

Rebecca made The Stage's 100 most influential figures working in theatre 2024 as an independent creative, as well as having been ranked 13th on the list in 2023.
