

Georgina Love

Writer

Georgina is an international screenwriter who splits her time between Australia and the UK. She has worked in casting for unscripted television and has worked in numerous roles, including Script Editor, Script Executive and Show Creator in scripted TV.

Georgina began her career when she was selected for the Smart for a Girl initiative, run by Endemol Shine and Screen Australia, before beginning work in writer's rooms as a Notetaker and quickly rising through the ranks into more senior development roles. In 2022, Georgina was selected for BBC Writers Room Scottish Voices. Her work has received awards and accolades from The Australian Writers Guild, The Blacklist, The Chicago International Film Festival, Final Draft and Screencraft.

Her original Sci-Fi feature, PIG, received international attention before being developed for series by Longboat Pictures. Her original horror concept, RABBIT HOLE, is also in development with Longboat Pictures. Georgina co-created the EERIE CHAPTERS OF CHHAYA, which was selected to be part of the Kindle Initiative and is in development with the ABC and CBC.
