

JENNY BEDE

Writer/Performer

Jenny Bede is an award-winning writer, actor, musical comedian and singer from London. She recently wrote the lyrics for Kirsty Mann and Tom Deering's new musical for Trafalgar Studios and took her latest show, THE FIRST PREGNANT WOMAN IN THE WORLD, to Edinburgh Fringe in 2022, where it received rave reviews. Jenny's previous five-star Edinburgh show, JENNY BEDE: THE MUSICAL, was in the top 25 best reviewed comedy shows at the Fringe and transferred to the Soho Theatre in 2022. As a stand-up, Jenny was named one of The Guardian's "Ones to Watch" and was the winner of Best Newcomer at the Musical Comedy Awards, and has made television appearances on the BBC, ITV, Channel 4, Sky and Netflix.

On the screenwriting side, Jenny is a recent winner of the prestigious BAFTA Rocliffe New Comedy Writing Award and currently has multiple projects in development with production companies including BBC Studios, CPL and Beano in the UK as well as an original series which she is developing in the US. Jenny's recent writing credits include her own pilot for BBC3 (in which she also starred) called JENNY BEDE: AAA, and MAD ON CHELSEA (E4), the sister show to the BAFTA award-winning reality TV series MADE IN CHELSEA which Jenny also presented. Further credits include IT'S PERSONAL WITH AMY HOGGART for TruTV in the US, SMALL TOWN POLITICS for Sky Arts in the UK and LAUGHING AT SALAD for Comedy Central.
