

ENO MFON

Writer-Director

Eno Mfon is a playwright, screenwriter and performer. Her writing is political, unwaveringly honest, and resolutely human. Following the success of her one-woman show CHECK THE LABEL, which she wrote and performed at the Bristol Old Vic, Eno recently adapted and directed the play for the television as part of Channel 4's Random Acts. Her second play SHIPPED, which was supported by Theatre West and directed by Jesse Jones, hit the stage in Bristol for ten nights. She has also worked with Talawa theatre company as a writer and performer on their Talawa Firsts programme. Eno was part of the BBC Writersroom 2018, and is currently under commission at BBC Radio 4 and the Almeida.
