Paddy Delaney is a bright young comedy writer, director and performer, who started his career writing and performing with sketch group Graham at the Edinburgh Fringe. Paddy is currently writer's assistant to multi Emmy award-winning writer and producer Armando Iannucci and has been working on the second series of AVENUE 5 for HBO and Sky. He has also collaborated on a series of online shorts with Lolly Adefope, which featured on the platform Mr. Box, as well as co-writing sketches with Richard Curtis on his campaigns for the United Nations. Paddy's recent work with character comedian Rory Marshall has led to the commission of a sponsored travel podcast touring around European cities. His directing work has seen him create online content for brands and non-profits. His solo written short film MEET THE MAKERS starred Harry Michell, Gabby Best and Ed Eales-White.
