

Paul Smith

Access Coordinator

Paul is an actor & stunt performer who over the years has been involved in behind-the-scenes work involving access & inclusivity within the TV and Film industry.

Paul has Pseudoachondroplasia [a rarer form of restricted growth] and has in the past used a wheelchair so has lots of varied disability personal experience. He also has a son who is on the autism spectrum and feels passionately about supporting the entire DDN community.
