

Vikas Gogana

Writer

Vikas Gogana is an actor and writer born and raised in Leicester. As an actor, he recently made his professional stage debut as an original cast member in I AIN'T DUMB at the Belgrade Theatre, directed by Rikki Beadle-Blair MBE. In 2021, he participated in the National Theatre's 16-21 writing for theatre course. In 2019, Vikas was shortlisted for Creative England's ShortFlix scheme, and his micro-short film 'THE COLOUR BROWN' received an honourable mention at the Berlin Flash Film Festival, and was selected for the Nexus Film Festival. Previously, he worked as a research and development writer on SURVIVORS' CLUB, a TV series in development with the BFI written by Mal Young and Daran Little. Vikas has also blogged for THE CS NETWORK, a platform that celebrates 'all things ethnic' in film and television.
